- KANE: What was your position in Unit 145?
BLANCO: I was the Commanding Officer of the traffic unit.
- KANE: How long were you the Commanding Officer in Unit 145?
BLANCO: I was there five years.
- KANE: Please describe your responsibilities as the Commanding Officer of Unit 145.
BLANCO: I was the administrative Lieutenant over Loop traffic, traffic enforcement, traffic safety, and the detail unit.
- KANE: Who were the secretaries for Unit 145?
BLANCO: Officer Maldonado, Officer Sutter, Officer Prendergast, Officer Simon, Officer Burton, Officer Ostrowski.
- KANE: What were their responsibilities?
BLANCO: Officer Maldonado she was the overall administrative secretary for the entire unit. Officer Sutter, the administrative person for Loop traffic, Officer Prendergast was the administrative person for traffic safety, Officer Simon was the administrative person for the detail unit, and Officer Ostrowski, was also administrative person for traffic safety, officer Burton was the administrative person for traffic enforcement.
- KANE: How were the Police Officers chosen as secretaries?
BLANCO: It varies, some move into the positions because of a change in duty status, such as Officer Prendergast, she moved into Traffic safety because of a light duty status, some are recommended such as Officer Sutter, the person who had the position for Loop traffic left and she was recommended to me by Sergeant James Glynn. Others were in those positions when I got there and I don't know how they were selected.
- ANE: Did you have someone drive you on various occasions?
BLANCO: Yes.
- KANE: Who was your regular driver?
BLANCO: Officer Sutter, but I have used different Officers at different times.
- KANE: Did one person drive for you more often than others? If yes, why?
BLANCO: Officer Sutter drove me more, and the reason why she was the one who would sit in and plan the escorts and motorcades, she knew the routes and the assignments.

KANE: Did anyone tell you that Sergeant Urbikas let the Officers who were doing a proficiency ride go home early?

BLANCO: Yes. Officer Prendergast told me.

KANE: What exactly did Officer Prendergast tell you?

BLANCO: She said that she knew that the Solo motorcycle Officers got to leave early.

KANE: Did she give you an exact date and time or circumstance?

BLANCO: No.

KANE: Did you question her on how she had that knowledge?

BLANCO: No.

KANE: Did you tell Sergeant Urbikas that it was Police Officer Prendergast who told you that Officers who were doing a proficiency ride go home early?

BLANCO: No.

KANE: How did Police Officer Prendergast have that knowledge?

BLANCO: I don't know.

KANE: On 30 September 2011 did Police Officer Prendergast call you to complain about you telling Sergeant Urbikas she reported to you what everyone in the office does, the times they come in and leave work?

BLANCO: Yes.

KANE: What exactly did she say in the call?

BLANCO: The best that I recall she said 'why would you tell Urbikas I told you what time they leave.' I said that I didn't say anything about that to him. She then said something like 'I heard that he said that I told you that they leave early.' She then said "motherfucker" and hung up, she was crying.

KANE: Did something change with the working relationship between you and Police Officer Prendergast in the several weeks before 30 September 2011?

KANE: Did you describe to Police Officer Prendergast any dreams you have had?

BLANCO: No.

KANE: Did you describe the following dream to Police Officer Prendergast?

A virus was killing everything off but you knew of a shelter that people could go and be safe from it. So you went home to get your wife and kids, but when you got there they were dead, but the virus hadn't killed them, your drug dealing neighbor had come over and shot them in the head. So then you went to the neighbor's house, killed the neighbor and his child, but told the neighbor's wife you would save her and take her to the shelter. (This is a neighbor who Police Officer Prendergast says you always talk about and how "hot" she is) First you told her you had to trust her so to prove her loyalty she had to have sex with you. But after you had sex with her you shot her in the head. The next person you thought of was Police Officer Prendergast, so you called her and she was upset because her husband had been killed. So you told her you would take her and the boys to the shelter with you. So you met up with her and drove several hours to the shelter and you knew it was going to be up to Police Officer Prendergast and you to repopulate the world, but before going into the shelter you and Police Officer Prendergast had to be decontaminated so you took a shower together.

BLANCO: No.

- KANE: Was there a specific problem with tardiness and of individuals leaving early while you were in Unit 145?
- BLANCO: I wasn't sure whether there was a problem so to make sure there wasn't a problem I wanted to make sure so I called all of the administrative people into my office. I told them for me to know whether they were arriving on time they were to email me when they arrived and when they left.
- KANE: Did you tell Police Officer Prendergast specifically to email you when she arrived at work?
- BLANCO: No. I told the whole group and all at the same time.
- KANE: What happened to have you institute this emailing?
- BLANCO: I called the office looking for Police Officer Prendergast on her direct line to do a task because she was the earliest one to arrive in the office and she didn't answer her phone. I realized that I wasn't sure what time people were getting to work so I thought this was the best solution to have them email me when they got to work.
- KANE: I am now showing you a copy of a To-From dated 30 September 2011, did you author this letter?
- BLANCO: Yes.
- KANE: How long was this practice in place?
- BLANCO: About a month maybe a little longer.
- KANE: Does the date of this To-From have anything to do with Police Officer Prendergast calling you about what Sergeant Urbikas said regarding her reporting to you about things going on in the office?
- BLANCO: No. I had already decided that I was going to do this.
- KANE: Is this practice now in place in Unit 145?
- BLANCO: No. I don't believe it is
- KANE: When did this practice stop?
- BLANCO: About a month later.
- KANE: Why did this practice stop?
- BLANCO: Because one of my enforcement Sergeants stated that one of the Sergeants should be checking this for me, instead of me being bothered with emails.

- KANE: Did you tell Police Officer Sutter to remove her personal pictures from her desk in the office?
- BLANCO: No.
- KANE: Why would someone say that Police Officer Prendergast and Police Officer Sutter told them that you said they were to remove personal pictures from their desk?
- BLANCO: There was a CR number obtain by a Sergeant in Unit 145 about a picture in 145 he found offense. I put out a memo that all offensive pictures, drawings etc. should be removed immediately. And I had the Sergeants enforce the memo. But I stated that personal, family pictures, encouraging inspirational messages could stay up.
